Your Political Beliefs

This section contains a series of questions about your alignment concerning broad governmental philosophies as well as some specific issues.

Where do our rights as citizens of the United States come from? Under what conditions can government infringe or suspend them?

The Constitution of The United States. Under no condition can the government infringe or suspend them!

Do you consider yourself a constitutional originalist or do you prescribe to it as a living document? Please explain.

I honestly am mixed up about this one. I believe the constitution of America is in place and specifically worded for a reason.

What is the purpose of government? If elected, how will you perform your duties based on that "purpose?"

To maintain order and stability, protect its citizens, and promote their well-being. I will always do my homework on every item that I come across. I will always bring common sense to everything I do. I strongly believe in minimizing taxes as feasible. The safety of our citizens is a major concern. This being said I will look at current policing contracts revise them or come up with a more common solution. I believe our community needs more living wage jobs.

When does life begin and at what point does the government have a duty to protect it?

Life begins at conception. Everyone has different values and beliefs on this subject. The 14th Amendment.

Do you have any criminal convictions, ever filed for bankruptcy, have any active or unresolved tax liens, any conflicts of interest that may jeopardize your candidacy?

Criminal Convictions from 20 years ago, yes.

Describe how you will make yourself available to your constituents and vote as their representative, adhering to the values and answers you've provided in this questionnaire.

I will always give a common sense answer to why I support or oppose something. I will always listen and hear the people. Doing my homework is key to understanding and providing positive information to the people. I will always strive to supply the community with the correct answers. Keeping taxes at a minimum as much as feasible is key.
